Giving Thanks

Head of School gives thanks.

Fall is here and I wanted to take this opportunity to let you know how grateful I am to have each of you as a part of our Calvary Family. Whether you are a parent, a grandparent, a student or one of our school's beloved faculty and staff, I am truly thankful for you. Without you, the Calvary experience would not be what it is for our students.

Over the last year, Calvary has faced unforeseen challenges, but each family, student, and staff member has risen to the occasion to assist in providing an exceptional learning environment for our students. Seeing how much my own children have grown (emotionally, academically, and spiritually) since starting at Calvary, is a true sense of pride for me. Our children reach for the stars and strive for success. They have a love for learning and for one another.

I believe all children want to accomplish great things, and thanks to the support of readers like you, Calvary is blessed with the ability to "let them give light to the world". I am thankful for your support and everything you do for our Calvary Family!

With Sincere Gratitude,

Catherine Bohot

On the Horizon

Take a look at the great things happening!

Book Character Day is always a blast! This is a day when students and staff may come to school dressed up as their favorite characters from books they love. There is so much creativity and it is an exciting way to celebrate the love of reading!

Fall Festival is right around the corner! This event is wonderful opportunity for our students and their families to gather outside of the classroom. The event is always so energizing and a great way to kick-off fall. This year there will be face painting, a rock wall for climbing, archery and so many other fun activities! Oh! And we mustn't forget the wonderful Bar-b-Que that is served at Fall Fest's Silent Auction!

To volunteer or be a sponsor for the event, please contact cappresident@calvaryschool.net.

Chapel Services are back in-person this year! Parents are welcome to join their children for Chapel. If you are new to Calvary, or have not had a chance to attend Chapel, please feel welcomed to do so. Chapel is a unique experience – the children sound so sweet singing the Creed, “I believe in God above. I believe in Jesus’ love. I believe His Spirit, too, comes to lead me into Truth. I believe that I can be kind and loving, Lord, like thee.” Chapel is held on different days of the week based on grade level.

Annual Fund's Fun Facts:

Fact or Fiction:

If a class achieves 100% Annual Fund participation, their success is celebrated with a special party.

Answer: Fact. Because support for Annual Fund is critical to the success of all school programs, classrooms celebrate the success of achieving 100% participation with a special party. Remember, no gift is too small; participation is what truly matters!
